Recently dined here for lunch, and found the wine list very challenging, especially in the organization of it. The groupings of wine were unusual, to say nothing of the many unusual bottles and producers on the list. Finally found a very nice Burgundy white, and the waiter was very nice to transcribe the label details so I could try to find it at retail. Food was very good for lunch, if not a bit pricey, but all those super fresh ingredients no doubt cost some dollars.
