

Here at elements our chef Scott Anderson and the team find inspiration in foraging and sourcing the best seasonal ingredients from surrounding fields, forests and the ocean.

Working in close relationship with local farmers, they are able to create pure and intricate dishes that reflect the beauty and abundance of the nature that surrounds us.

On the following pages, it is our pleasure to introduce you to wines that are terroir driven and thoughtfully selected to support, harmonize with and highlight the above creations, revealing nuanced flavors and textures.
